

Basic DSLR Photography Course (One Day)

Course Outline

- 1.0 ISO Setting
  - 1.1 Understanding ISO
  - 1.2 Practical use of ISO to control exposure
  - 1.3 Relation of ISO and digital noise
- 2.0 White Balance
  - 2.1 Understanding White Balance
  - 2.2 Types of preset White Balance
  - 2.3 Setting Custom White Balance
  - 2.4 Setting Custom Temperature
  - 2.5 Test Your AWB
  - 2.6 White Balance Shift
  - 2.7 White Balance Bracketing
- 3.0 Aperture
  - 3.1 Understanding Aperture
  - 3.2 Aperture Number
  - 3.3 Difference Between Large and Small Aperture
  - 3.4 Depth of Field
  - 3.5 Working in Aperture Mode
- 4.0 Shutter Speed
  - 4.1 Understanding Shutter Speed
  - 4.2 Working with Shutter Speed Mode
- 5.0 Metering System
  - 5.1 Types of metering system
  - 5.2 Application and selection of metering system
  - 5.3 Handheld Metering System
  - 5.4 Best Metering Mode All Time
- 6.0 Focusing System and Drive Mode
  - 6.1 Choosing Auto Focusing System
  - 6.2 Auto Focusing Mode Selection
  - 6.3 Using Manual Focusing
  - 6.4 Using focus point selection
  - 6.5 Drive Mode/Release Mode
  - 6.6 Self Timer/Remote Control
- 7.0 Exposure
  - 7.1 Understanding Exposure
  - 7.2 Adjusting Exposure Level
  - 7.3 Exposure Bracketing
- 8.0 Full Manual Mode
  - 8.1 Understanding Manual Control
  - 8.2 When to Use Manual Mode?
  - 8.3 Which Setting to Start With?

Course Duration : 1 (one) Day (Saturday or Sunday). Time 9am to 5pm.

Mode of Training : Classroom and outdoor.

Number of Participants : Between 5 to 10 participants.

Camera System Preferences: NO PREFERENCES. Any camera will do.

Language Medium : Bahasa Malaysia and English

Course Fee : RM250 cash to be paid during course registration.